

A vibrant poster for a medieval festival. The top half features a knight in a red surcoat and chainmail, holding a sword, with a large firework exploding in the sky behind him. The title 'Les Médiévales' is written in a large, elegant script, followed by 'COMMEQUIERS' in a bold, blocky font. Below the title, the dates '5 & 6 AOÛT 2006' are displayed in a yellow, stylized font. The bottom half of the poster shows a scene from the festival: a stone castle with multiple towers, a jousting competition with two knights on horseback, and a man in a red surcoat riding a horse. The background is a clear blue sky with green trees.
